With peanuts at 10c a bag, it can hardly be advertised as an old-fashioned Fourth truthfully.

LIFE OF JACK DEMPSEY, HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMP

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 21.—William Harrison Dempsey, the name by which the world's heavyweight champion was christened, was born 26 years ago in Manassa, Colorado. The prefix "Jack" was assumed by the big fellow when he had grown to man's estate, and had chosen the little ring for a livelihood. As a fighter he had the idea, and a good one, that by assuming the Christian name of "Jack" some of the glamor of the original Jack Dempsey, Brooklyn's famous "Nonpareil," possessed as the middleweight titleholder, might revert to him.

The champion is the sixth child of a family of eight. Three of his brothers and three sisters are alive but the youngest of the eight, who was named Bruce, died about two years ago. When Dempsey was 7 years old his parents, Hiram and Ella Dempsey, with all their children moved from Manassa to Montrose, Colorado, where they lived for nine years. Then the Dempsey household was shifted to Salt Lake City, Utah, and that is the place which they, including the champion claim as their home.

Born of rugged parents, Dempsey claims that he has Irish, Scotch and Indian blood in his veins and insists that the fighting qualities for which all three of these races are famous have been bred in the bone and blood and have come to him in generous portions from his antecedents. Most of Dempsey's early life was spent in the open on a farm, but later he alternated by working in the mines except in harvest time, when he found it more remunerative to devote his strength to reaping wheat and other crops in the grain belt. In this way Dempsey kept himself in fine physical condition, the hard labor developing the wonderful muscles which proved to be such a useful factor in his winning

MANY ATTEND GRAND OPENING OF UNIQUE SHOP

Yesterday was a gala day for the Tonopah population of Tonopah, for at least one-third of the ladies of this city visited the opening of the new quarters of the popular Unique store. Mrs. Casey, the courteous and popular manager of this store, had prepared a pleasant surprise for all visitors. In the way of a musical entertainment the Whitesides and Al. Lichtenberg, discarding charming up-to-date musical numbers, while the little Misses Katherine Kelly and Janie Sorenson, wearing the latest creations in ladies' hats, presented each lady with carnations.

The Unique's new quarters, next door above the old stand in the L. J. Thompson building, has been moved after the up-to-date big city stores. Booths for the ladies, comfortable chairs and settees, large mirrors, etc., and last, but not least, the up-to-date stock of ladies' dressy and millinery, greet the buyer. The Unique will in the future carry a larger stock than heretofore and asks the people of outside districts to make the store their headquarters in this city.

A. F. OF L. IS AGAINST GAMBLING IN FUTURES

(By Associated Press)
DENVER, Col., June 21.—Abolition of gambling in grain futures on the Chicago board of trade, and the establishment of cooperative production and consumption organizations, with government regulations of currencies and monopolies, were today urged by the convention of the American Federation of Labor as a means to combat the high cost of living. The work of the federal trade commission was commended.

The convention went on to urge against legislation fixing wages of workers, declaring that if American standards are to be governed by laws enacted by congress made up of men not alive to maintaining these standards, the workers of the country will suffer irreparable injury by legislation governing their wages. An educational campaign to give teachers and students of the country the truth about the labor movement and to "meet propaganda" in the schools of the country in the hands of the so-called open shop was authorized by the delegates.

PERMIT GIVEN TO NEVADA OIL BASIN COMPANY

The Nevada Oil Basin company, which has three sections of government oil lands located 12 miles from the Carson port of the Carson river, has just received its permit from Carson City to operate and develop its holdings. The blue line shows the oil location is composed of fossils and when a shaft is broken into it contains oil.

The Nevada Oil Basin company was the first to locate ground in the Oil Basin section, but since then the country has been located for miles around. The Nevada Oil Basin company has a prominent article in its principal section and upon this article a well will be bored for oil. The officers of the company are W. W. Booth, president, H. F. Bruce, vice-president, Harry McNamara, secretary and treasurer, Frank Mackley, Hugh McCloskey, Harry McSherry and Thomas Mann. The first three officers and the last four named persons comprise the board of directors. Now that the permit has been granted, it is expected that within a short time active drilling will be commenced on the property.

THEORY OF PIRACY HAS BEEN GIVEN CREDENCE

(By Associated Press)
PORTLAND, Me., June 21.—The theory that pirates are active in the North Atlantic has found credence today in the explanation of the recent discovery of a shipwrecked vessel with the establishment of the fact that a message in a bottle placed by two months ago, north of Cape Hatteras, purporting to explain the disappearance of the crew of the abandoned schooner Carroll.

The question of the genuineness was settled by handwriting experts who compared it with letters written by James. The message noted stated the schooner had been captured by a crew of pirates and the crew had been murdered and everything taken on board.
